

BROOKSVILLE BUSINESS ALLIANCE

NEWSLETTER

August 25, 2007

Welcome to our new members: Westover's Flowers & Gifts, INK ME! Screen-Printing, Broad Street Café and Brooksville Natural Foods.

The BBA website is great! Take a minute to browse through everyone's site/page, so you can keep informed. Please notify David Curtis, Brooksville Computer, with new information, such as events, ads, sales in your shop, or anything important to our community and to your business. The deadline for updates to David, are the 1st and 15th of each month.

The new Brooksville Business Alliance Brochure is available at the Antique Sampler Mall or at the next meeting.

The next meeting is September 13, 2007, 5:30 p.m., at the Rising Sun Café, 10 S. Main Street. This will be a business meeting, no food will be served. The meetings will be held each month at the Rising Sun, unless otherwise notified.

Hungry Thyme will no longer be able to accommodate the meetings, and we want to sincerely thank C. R. and Sue, owners of Hungry Thyme, and their staff, for the many years of hosting the business meetings, and for all the great home cooked food which we enjoyed.

The City of Brooksville and Duane Chichester, with Hernando Today/Tampa Tribune, has asked our Business Alliance to Chair the City of Brooksville Founders' Day Events in celebration of the 151st birthday of Brooksville, October 13-20. Brooksville Business Alliance member, Mary Jane Russell, 797-8402, will be the chairperson of this event on behalf of Brooksville Business Alliance.

The Market on Main Street reopens September 15th, and we would like to encourage all business owners to either participate or encourage others to set up at the Market. The October market will feature Founder's activities, such as a "Birthday Cake", music, clowns, historical presentation by Roger Landry, and a cane weaving demo by our own Kathleen Barnes. Call Evelyn Duncan, 352-797-9330, for additional information. Applications are available at the Brooksville Business Alliance's website, www.Brooksvillebusiness.com.

We hope to see you at the next meeting, at the Rising Sun, September 13, 5:30 p.m.
